For more information visit:
www.roetourism.com.au

The Shire of Kondinin Art Trail forms part of the Pathways to Wave Rock Drive Trail which links the towns of Bruce Rock, Narembeen, Rock Drive, Lake Grace, Kulin, Kondinin and Corrigin. From massive granite outcrops to spectacular views, expansive farmland to natural woodlands, open skies and fabulous camping spots, together with amazing wildflowers and great country hospitality the Pathways to Wave Rock Drive Trail is well worth the journey.

Pathways to Wave Rock

Kondinin Art Show

If you are visiting our region in October you will be able to attend the Kondinin Art Show.

Held in October every year and worth $11,000 in prize money, the Kondinin Art Show attracts a very high calibre of art work which is on display and pieces available for purchase during the five day exhibition.

For exact dates & for more information visit the Shire's website www.kondinin.wa.gov.au

And there is more...

Whilst walking around our towns of Kondinin, Karlgarin and Hyden you will also see more unique and quirky art work within private property created by local residents.

If you are here in the summer months drop into the Kondinin Aquatic Centre where you will see some large colourful works on canvas. Or if you have time for a swim at the Hyden Swimming Pool check out the mural behind the diving pool.

Drop into the Kondinin CRC and take a look at the historic photo collection.

Visit the Hyden CRC where you will see some sculptures at the entrance and inside a collection of the Kondinin Art Show Acquisition prizes on canvas.

Mulka's Cave - located at The Humps, a giant granite 16km north of Wave Rock the cave holds one of the most significant Aboriginal rock art sites in Western Australia.
